CIBE MAY 2025 PARIS TRAINING CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE!!!

The recently concluded CIBE Paris Training Conference brought together a dynamic mix of academics, professionals, policy leaders, and innovators from across Africa and Europe. Held in the heart of Paris, the conference delivered a world-class learning and networking experience under the theme: "Driving Sustainability and Innovation: Breaking New Frontiers in Project Funding, Digital Transformation, and Resilience."

Over the course of several high-impact sessions, delegates engaged with insightful presentations on grant proposal development, institutional sustainability, and digital transformation in education, and entrepreneurship in ACE Impact and SPESSE projects. The training was rich with real-world case studies, practical toolkits, and peer brainstorming sessions, making it a must-attend for institutions seeking global relevance and funding access.

The conference also featured international resource persons from France, the USA, and Nigeria, including Prof. Salouhou, Danielle Lagarde, and Mounia Aram, whose thought-provoking contributions left a lasting impression on participants.

From morning inspiration sessions like "Legacies over Luxury: Redefining Academic Excellence in the Digital Era" to strategy-driven papers like "From Vision to Funding", the CIBE Paris experience was nothing short of transformative.

"This training has changed the way I will approach project sustainability in my institution. It's a complete mindset shift!" — Participant from a Nigerian Federal University

As we look ahead, registration is now open for the next edition (Stream 3) of the CIBE Paris Training Conference, scheduled for August 2025. Don't miss this opportunity to be part of a growing global network of changemakers driving innovation in education, finance, and governance
